Mumbai: Indian Oil Corporation and Bajaj Allianz General Insurance have entered into a strategic tie up for distribution of general insurance products.

The insurer will sell its retail products like motor, personal accident and health insurance policies through IOCs over 14,000 fuel stations across nine major states.

"We are confident that this partnership will help us take insurance solutions to some of the remotest corners of our country through these fuel stations," Manohar Bhat, chief business head for motor insurance at Bajaj Allianz General said.
